

IPC A-610 Acceptability of Electronic Assemblies

CIS - Application Specialist / CSE - Certified IPC Expert / CIT - Certified IPC Trainer

IPC A-610 Course Content

Module 1	Introduction/IPC Professional Policies and Procedures, Foreword, Applicable Documents and Handling
Module 2	Soldering and High Voltage
Module 3	Component Damage & PCB's, Cleanliness
Module 4	Terminals (Requires Module 2)
Module 5	Through-Hole Technology (Requires modules 2 + 3)
Module 6	Surface Mount Technology (Requires Modules 2 + 3)
Module 7	Hardware
CIT/CSE	As above but an extra session for instructor skills & IPC Knowledge *The Maximum Course size is 15 Delegates

IPC A-610 CIS Application Specialist

Course Duration	3 Days
-----------------	--------

IPC A-610 CSE Certified IPC Expert

Course Duration 4 Days
------------------------	--

IPC A-610 CIT Certified IPC Trainer

Course Duration	4 Days
CIT Training Materials	Per IPC Policies & Procedures 7.4 January 2024, CIT training resources will be available to download from within My IPC Edge within 24 hours of passing the course. This does not include standards/ CQI credits which can be purchased separately.

IPC A-610 CIS/CSE/CIT Courses

Course Dates	Please call the team for course availability.
Location	The Electronics Group, The Electronics Group Cirencester, Remote, Customer Premises
Training Materials	All training materials/documentation for the duration of the course will be provided by The Electronics Group. Copies of the IPC 610 book are available to purchase.

Facilities Required for CIS/CSE/CIT Onsite Option

EGL will require a classroom/ boardroom style environment with access to WiFi and a large HDMI TV screen for presentations.
